

Asian Art Association / Denver Art Museum

Chicago Art Trip with Curatorial Assistant Douglas Wagner

April 8-11, 2011

Join the Asian Art Association to explore the Asian art treasures in one of the world's greatest museum cities: Chicago. During this tour we will be guided by curators through some of the world's finest art museums emphasizing their exquisite Asian Art collections. We will also be visiting private homes to view some personal collections – a particularly special opportunity for our Asian Art Association members. Our group will enjoy the world class cuisine of Chicago with several group meals and stay at the historic Whitehall hotel in the heart of the vibrant city with a plethora of cultural attractions, shopping and restaurants within easy walking distance.

Send your registration form & payment today to reserve your place on the tour! (Only 7 spots remaining)

Full Itinerary: (subject to minor changes)

- ◆ Friday April 8 Art Institute of Chicago: A special curator-lead tour of the new Japanese art wing in addition to viewing the impressive permanent collection. We will enjoy dinner at the Park Grill in Millennium park.
- ◆ Saturday April 9 Smart Museum at University of Chicago: Curator-lead private viewing of 19th century and contemporary Chinese works. Group lunch in Hyde Park
- ◆ Oriental Art Institute: Also on the University of Chicago campus, curator tour of rare collections of Near Eastern (Egyptian, Nubian, Assyrian, Persian) and Central Asian art.
- ◆ Sunday April 10 The Field Museum: Tour of Japanese lacquer, Hall of Jade, Chinese and Tibetan collections as well as the wealth of other museum exhibits. Group Dinner at a fine Chinatown restaurant
- ◆ Monday April 11 a private visit to the Andrew Bae Gallery of Contemporary Asian Art
- ◆ Visits to private collections to be determined
- ◆ Free time to enjoy other aspects of the vibrant city like Frank Lloyd Wright and other historic architecture
