

Sumi-e Traditions and Anticipations

with Shozo Sato

Wednesday, April 11, 2012 12noon-1pm

Lower Level Lecture Room,

North Bldg (Ponti, castle), Denver Art Museum.

Shozo Sato, a recipient of the Order of the Sacred Treasure from the Emperor of Japan, has spent his lifetime both in teaching and creating Japanese Traditional Arts. The lecture on Wednesday, April 11, will encompass the various aspects of traditional black ink painting down through the ages and the new directions being taking in contemporary Sumi-e.

Asian Art Association members: free
Teachers and students: $5
DAM members: $7
Others: $10

Sumi-e: The Art of Japanese Ink Painting

By Shozo Sato

Will be available in the DAM Gift Shop at member's prices for those enrolled in the workshop.

Reservations Recommended

blittle@denverartmuseum.org or 720-913-0040

THREE DAY HANDS-ON WORKSHOP

April 12, 13 and 14 (Thursday, Friday and Saturday), 2012 ,

10am-4:30pm

Art Studio / Classroom, Lower Level, North Bldg.,

Denver Art Museum

The workshops with internationally known artist, Shozo Sato, will introduce the use of a Sumi-e brush, its techniques and the basic principles of composition. Participants should discover that this experience with painting in black ink will carry over and will be applicable for creative work in all other media. The workshops are suitable for all levels ranging from beginners to seasoned artists.

AAA members $ 300.00

DAM members, teachers, students: $ 320.00

All Others: $ 350.00

Materials fee included in admission cost.

Maximum students: 15

Reservations required with pre-payment. $50 non-refundable deposit will hold reservation until payment in full.

Deadline 3pm, April 3, 2012.

blittle@denverartmuseum.org or 720-913-0040

